I understand that the first floor studio, living room and sleeping area of co・iki are essentially shared living spaces.

*The doors of the room may be closed but generally are encouraged to be kept open as an extension of the living space for a more open feel.

*The kitchen, bathroom and toilet are also shared.

*The 2nd floor space is reserved exclusively for use by the owner of co・iki.

Cleaning arrangements for the first floor shared space will be made in agreement with the owner.
